How YOU Can Help...

- Come and see me at the next break to check I have the details of your team captains for the 2016/17 BUCS Tennis Season
- Hound your team captains about submitting their Squad Declarations
- Check to see if they understand the results submission process
- Support them in getting players signed up for BTM and helping with foreign equivalency ratings
- Check they are on top of getting their results in

Thank you for listening.
